Nancy Wynne Tells of a Meeting of the Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames of America. She Chats About the Many Fairs in May

IT HAS been the custom of the Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames of America to commemorate some historical event in the history of the Colonial period by a general society meeting each year. This year I hear that the Colonial Dames are planning a joint meeting with the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania in commemorating the coming of the Swedes to the Delaware, 1638-1655, the idea originating with the Associate Committee of Women of the Genealogical Society. The meeting is to be held out of doors at the Corinthian Yacht Club on Thursday afternoon, May 25, from 2:30 until 6 o'clock. The commemoration is under the auspices of the sub-committee, The Entertainment Committee of the Genealogical Society includes Mrs. Thomas Hand Ball, Mrs. Louis F. Benson, Miss Margaret Ridgway Grundy, Miss Nina Lea, ex officio; Miss May Atherton, Mrs. Anna E. Mages, Mrs. Alvin Parker and Mrs. C. Howard Colket, chairman. The Entertainment Committee of Colonial Dames is composed of Mrs. William J. Clothier, Mrs. William H. Donner, Mrs. Henry C. Dulles, Mrs. John Semple Sharpe, Mrs. Clarence A. Warden, Mrs. W. Chittin Wetherill, Mrs. James Starr, Jr., ex officio, and Mrs. Randall Morgan, chairman. The meeting sounds as if it would be most interesting.

SPRING certainly seems to be the time for garden parties, fairs and fetes of all kinds. This Friday the Ladies' Aid Society will give a Presbyterian Hospital, fete. Miss Converse's place at Rosemont for the benefit of the building fund in connection with the Cathedral Home at Devon, and the following week we have the Wyandott Fete, at Dog Saw and the Rittenhouse Square Flower Market, they are on the 17th and 18th, respectively, and then on Tuesday, May 28, there will be a Country Fair at the Germantown Cricket Club.

Mrs. Chittin Wetherill is chairman of this fair and from all that I hear it sounds most attractive. There will be all sorts of things for all ages. Ice cream cones in charge of Evelyn B. Page will be sold from a pony cart. Mrs. Felix du Pont will have charge of a cretonne dress and hat table; Miss Dorothea Wood will direct a candy table, and Polly Savage will sell cakes. Polly came out last winter, and her brother Ernest will marry, and her man on June 28. Clair Gittings will be the "chairman" of the balloons, and Polly Bayard and Mary Bartow will have a grab bag. Mrs. Quincy Adams Gilmore is in charge of baby tables; Caroline Barclay, a sports table, where unusual sweaters and other things will be on sale, and Mary Page Platt will have a vegetable table.

A lot of younger girls will act as aides and will serve tea. Among them will be Evelyn Drayton, Elise Biddle Robinson, Kitty Porter, Betty Wayne, Sue Gilmore Hope, Randolph, Sara Mary Barnes, Caroline Norton, Katherine Snowden, Anne Schwartz, Louise and Virginia Norris, Bitty Ferguson, Peggy Logan and many others. Among those who are working for the fair are Mrs. Thomas Reath, Mrs. Roland Morris, Mrs. Arthur Hacker, Mrs. Roland Foulke, Mrs. John Story Jenks, Jr., Mrs. Evan Randolph, Mrs. Clarence Zantinger, Mrs. Edwin F. E. Wood, Mrs. Sydney Martin, Mrs. Joseph Walker Wren, Miss Pauline Howie, Mrs. John Muir and Miss Marjorie Taylor.

THE new crepe de chine capes and dresses are so good looking. I saw Elizabeth Ross in a pretty one a few days ago. It was black and simply made, and she was wearing it over a black crepe de chine dress, the skirt of which was covered with a red corded material. It's hard to describe, but it was most attractive.

Margaret Earle has a dress and cape of black cretonne. The dress has no trimming except a little open work around the neck, and the cape is lined with sand-colored crepe de chine. When I saw her she was wearing two long strings of pearls with the dress, and a black straw hat with pale yellow flowers across the front. Sand-colored stockings and patent leather sandals completed her costume and it was very becoming.
